Legislative Journal.

Session 1929 — 128th of the General Assembly

Vol. 11 — HARRISBURG, TUESDAY, APRIL 9, 1929 — No. 34

SENATE.

TUESDAY, April 9, 1929.

The Senate met at 11 o'clock A. M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Arthur H. James) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. Christian H. Shirk, offered the following prayer:

Our Creator and our God, we stand in profound sorrow and bereavement before Thee this morning. Death has suddenly removed from our midst a highly esteemed citizen of this city and State, a former member of our legislative bodies and former Lieutenant-Governor of Pennsylvania, the Honorable Edward E. Beidleman.

We thank Thee for the splendid type of man he was, and that it was our privilege to know him and enjoy his big-hearted and whole-hearted friendship.

We rejoice that even those who did not always agree with him politically knew his worth as a man, and held him in high esteem.

We feel well assured that his was a life of eminent usefulness and of sincere and vigorous devotion to duty, and that he leaves behind him only blessed and fragrant memories among his ever-enlarging circle of friends.

Console the grief-stricken members of his family group—his aged parents, his devoted wife and his beloved daughter—and all others in close relationship. May the memories of his worth and the nobility of his life in a measure assuage their grief.

May death likewise find each of us at our post of duty, and may we all be enabled to render a good account to Thee. We ask in our Redeemer's name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present, the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. SALUS, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF DEATH OF HONORABLE EDWARD E. BEIDLEMAN.

Mr. EARNEST. Mr. President, I ask the indulgence of the Senate to speak for a moment in the way of an announcement upon the death of a gentleman who served in this body for a period of six years, who presided as Lieutenant-Governor for a period of four years, a man known probably to every Senator in this body, a man known throughout the State as a forceful citizen and statesman, Honorable Edward E. Beidleman, who very, very suddenly passed out of this life into the Great Beyond early this morning

So great is the shock to his friends everywhere, and, naturally, here in Harrisburg more particularly, that everywhere I have been this morning there have been tears and chokings; so that, it is very hard for me to make this announcement. As a warm personal friend, and as a Senator from this district of Dauphin County, I think you will bear with me, and think that it is right that I should announce to this body the death of Edward E. Beidleman.

This is no place, nor is it the time, for eulogy. My own heart is too full—I could not begin to pronounce a eulogy, if I should be called upon to do so at this moment; but I think that as an honor we may be able to pay to Governor Beidleman we are justified in taking just a moment even though it spreads gloom here. However, the gloom is already here.

And I desire to and will make a motion. The motion is that a committee be appointed to prepare a resolution, which shall be spread upon the minutes of this body, concerning this most exemplary, most unusual citizen of Harrisburg and of the State of Pennsylvania; that the Senate attend the funeral of Governor Beidleman; and that the Secretary of the Senate send from the Senate a floral tribute.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I want to second that motion; and I ask that it be passed with a rising vote.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I move to amend the motion to read that the resolution be referred to the Committee on Public Roads and Highways.

Mr. HEATON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, last Wednesday this bill was presented for final action in the House. There was not quite a quorum there to do business—I want to be frank about it.

The bill provides that prison labor be taken from Rockview Penitentiary to build some State institution down in Cumberland County.

There were quite a few members absent from the House, who were recorded as voting for this bill; hence the resolution asking the Senate to return the bill—and I think it is only just and right that if this bill goes to the committee, the committee should report it out and thus accommodate the House to that extent, in order to get the vote recorded correctly in the House.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I desire to change my amendment to the motion, to the effect that the resolution be referred to the Committee on Appropriations instead of to the Committee on Public Roads and Highways.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I second the motion as amended.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

An Act to amend the act approved the twenty-eighth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, (P. L. 367), entitled "An act authorizing the council of cities of the second class to fix the salary of the heads of departments of said cities, nad providing the maximum amount thereof," by removing the limitation on the amount of the salaries of heads of departments.

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I should like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill, the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Sordoni.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Sordoni, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, this bill was recommitted to committee. It refers to the city which I represent in this body, but I have never been spoken to about it. It has been recommitted, and is back on the calendar. I should like to ask the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Sordoni, from what source, representing the City of Pittsburgh,—to which the bill applies exclusively—he received the honor of a request to present legislation relating to Pittsburgh.

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I was asked as a member of the Salary Survey Commission, which held meetings in several cities, including Pittsburgh. This bill was presented through me by the Legislative Reference Bureau; and, to the best of my knowledge, it was presented on behalf of the people of Pittsburgh. I have absolutely no interest in the bill, as I told the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Leslie. I simply presented it as it was presented to me. If the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Leslie, has objection to it, he can kill it. I have no interest in it.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I have no particular objection to it; but the commission to which the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Sordoni, refers was on the salaries relating to counties.

BILL OVER IN ORDER.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I ask that Senate Bill No. 399, go over in its order.

Upon the filing with the clerk of the Courts of Quarter Sessions of said county of a certified and attested copy of said resolution such roads, streets, lanes, or alleys, shall become a part of the public highway system of said township and shall be so recorded in the said court of quarter sessions). No road, street, lane or alley, or any drainage facilities therewith, shall be opened, constructed or dedicated for public use or travel, except in strict accordance with plans so approved by the commissioners or supervisors or with further plans subsequently approved by them in the same manner.

In any case where the township commissioners or township supervisors shall refuse to approve any plans submitted to them in accordance with this act, any person aggravated by the action of the commissioners or supervisors may within thirty days after such action, appeal therefrom by petition to the court of quarter sessions of the county, which court shall hear the matter de novo, and after hearing, may enter a decree affirming, reversing or modifying the action of the commissioners or supervisors as may appear just in the premises. The court shall designate the manner in which notice of the hearing of any such appeal shall be given to all parties interested. The decision of the court shall be final.

The action of the township commissioners or township supervisors, or the court on appeal in approving any such plans, and such plans, shall be recorded by the person applying for such approval in the office of the Recorder of Deeds of the county.

Whereas, He died on October eleventh, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine of wounds received on October ninth, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine at the siege of Savannah, Georgia, and

HOUSE CONCURS IN RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO AMENDMENT TO TARIFF LAW.

He also presented communication from the House of Representatives informing the Senate that the House has concurred in resolution from the Senate as follows:

In the Senate, April 8, 1929.

Whereas, The importation of Bituminous and Anthracite Coal and their products into the United States from European Countries is working a great injury upon the owners and workers of the Bituminous and Anthracite regions of Pennsylvania where thousands of miners are unemployed at the present time, and

Whereas, The importation of Textiles from Asiatic and European Countries into the United States is creating havoc and demoralization among these industries in Pennsylvania, among the owners and the workers thereof, particularly at this time when the industry is in need of a greater domestic market at a fair price for its products, and

Whereas, The importation of Art leaded and Memorial windows for churches and other buildings of similar design is working a great injury to the glass manufacturing industry of the United States, and

Whereas, The above mentioned importations are imposing these hardships upon the industries mentioned and the workers therein, because these importations are made with the exception of textiles, into our country duty free, and

Whereas, The principal points of production and manufacture of coal, textiles and art glass and memorial windows are largely located in the State of Pennsylvania,

Therefore be it resolved, and it is hereby resolved:

That the Senate and House of Representatives of the 1929 Session of the Pennsylvania State Legislature memorialize the Congress of the United States and especially the United States Senator and Congressmen from Pennsylvania to use their best offices in an effort to amend the Tarif Law in a manner that will bring adequate protection to the Coal, Textile and Art Glass industries of Pennsylvania from this very destructive foreign competition.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I voted "aye".

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed third reading.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I voted "aye".

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I voted "aye".

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Public Roads and Highways.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senate to vote this motion down. There is no special reason for referring this bill to a committee. This bill provides, as far as I understand, that the State can appropriate money toward streets in third class cities, second class cities and so forth; and I think it is high time that the men from the townships and boroughs help the cities somewhat, in a financial way, to take care of their streets. I can see no reason whatever why this bill should go back to committee; and if the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, can give me a good reason, I will listen to it.

Mr. BUCKMAN. It is very kind of the Senator from Lackawanna, Mr. Davis, to even listen to the Chairman of the Committee on Public Roads and Highways in a matter of this kind.

This is a part of the road program of this Commonwealth at the present session. This bill seems to have trotted a little faster than I could keep up with it, it go through unnoticed and unintentionally. As far as I am concerned, I have nothing against the bill; in fact, I am for it 100%, but I have a certain program to follow out, and a certain method, in reference to these road bills, of advancing them on the calendar. They were put back into committee, were to be held only a very short time, and then would be placed before the Senate for final action.

I am just as strongly for this bill as is the Senator from Lackawanna, but it is part of a road program of seven or eight bills, and this bill happened to get on third reading ahead of its mates or companions, and slipped through unintentionally.

I therefore trust that the Senate will sustain my motion to recommit this bill, in order that it may be placed alongside of the other bills which are part of the same program.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I am very glad to know that the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, is one hundred per cent for this bill. Under those circumstances I certainly will not object to its going to his committee; and I hope he will bring it out in due time,—just as fast as it was placed on the calendar.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The motion was agreed to.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT SENATE BILL NO. 505.

Mr. BOYD. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 505, on third reading, entitled:

An Act regulating the compounding, dispensing and preparation of drugs, medicines or poisons; providing for the enforcement thereof, and providing penalties.

be recommitted to the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation for the purpose of amendment.

Mr. WEINGARTNER. Mr. President, there is no good reason for recommitting this bill for the purpose of amendment, unless it be with a view to killing the bill. I would like to know what objection there is to the passage of this bill.

The PRESIDENT. Does the Senator from Lawrence, Mr. Weingartner, desire to interrogate the Senator from Montgomery, Mr. Boyd?

Mr. WEINGARTNER. Mr. President, I do.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Montgomery, Mr. Boyd, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BOYD. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. WEINGARTNER. Mr. President, I would like to know what objection there is to the passage of this bill.

Mr. BOYD. Mr. President, this bill has been before us off and on during the session, and some of my constituents were violently opposed to it. They came up here, and were assured that the bill would be amended to suit them. They went home leaving the bill in the position in which it now comes out on the third reading calendar, unamended, in accordance with the understanding they had; and as I know it will be detrimental to their interests, I naturally am asking that it be committed back for the purpose of amending it as they wish it to be amended.

Mr. WEINGARTNER. Mr. President, I desire further to interrogate the Senator from Montgomery, Mr. Boyd.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Montgomery, Mr. Boyd, permit himself to be interrogated further?

Mr. BOYD. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. WEINGARTNER. Mr. President, I desire to further inquire,—if this bill is recommitted and amended, will the Senator from Montgomery, Mr. Boyd, agree to its being reported out immediately, so that it will again be on the third reading calendar?

Mr. BOYD. Mr. President, I am not a member of that committee, but it is my intention to have it placed back, after the amendment that my constituents request has been put in. If it had been put in as had been agreed the bill would not now be under discussion. The only reason I am asking to have it recommitted is because the amendment that we were promised was not added to it. It should have been put in,—and then this would not have occurred.

Mr. WEINGARTNER. Mr. President, if the Senator from Montgomery, Mr. Boyd, will let this bill go over in its order, it might be amended on the floor.

Mr. BOYD. Mr. President, I prefer to have it go back; and my motion is to recommit the bill.

Mr. BELL. Mr. President, I second the motion.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I, personally, know nothing about the bill, I am not interested in the bill; but the sponsor of the bill is not in the chamber at the present time, and any delay of a bill means its defeat. The least that can be done will be to let it go over,—and it will die a natural death. As to recommitting it for amendment, if there are any who are so much interested in it, they should have the amendments.

I am not interested in the merits or demerits of the bill, but I would just say to the Senator from Montgomery, Mr. Boyd, that if he will just let it go over in its order it will die a natural death,—if it does not get out of here.

Mr. BOYD. Mr. President, if the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Leslie, agrees that if it goes over in its order the amendments are requested by my constituents shall be made, I will be very glad to have it go over in its order.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I will be very glad to get in touch with the sponsor of the bill, my colleague, the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Einstein.

Mr. BOYD. Mr. President, I will be very glad to agree to its going over in its order if the amendment will be made to it.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I will agree to one of two things: It will either be amended in accordance with the wish of the Senator from Montgomery, Mr. Boyd, or it will die.

BILL OVER IN ORDER.

Mr. BOYD. Mr. President, I will withdraw my motion to recommit this bill, and ask tha tit go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

ADJOURNMENT.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. president, I move that the Senate do now adjourn until tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I second the motion.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, it seems to me that the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, is very strong on making motions when it suits him. I understand that we have a lot of work to finish up this week, and I cannot see why we should adjourn when we have work to do. We should come back here to-night to finish up our work.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I should like to interrogate the Senator from Lackawanna, Mr. Davis.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Lackawanna, Mr. Davis, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, yes.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, what work have we before us now?

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, the House will convene at eight o'clock, and the Senate will have work here until 12 o'clock, if we want to come here and do it.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, it is impossible for the House to send any work to the Senate that will engage the attention of the Senate. All they could do would be to send some bills in here, which we could refer to committees; and certainly there can be no occasion to have a night session for that purpose. The calendar is cleared, and there is no reason in the world for a night session.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I am not going to say any more. I know the reason for this motion. I am going to ask the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, to include that in his motion (handing paper to Senator Buckman).

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I withdraw the former motion made by me, and now move that in respect to the memory of our esteemed friend, former colleague and former presiding officer, the late Hon. E. E. Beidleman, the Senate do now adjourn until 11 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The Senate adjourned at 6.33 p. m. until 11 o'clock Wednesday morning, April 10, 1929.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

TUESDAY, April 9, 1929.

The House met at 11.00 o'clock A. M.

The SPEAKER (Aaron B. Hess) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. Martin W. Schweitzer, Ph. D., offered the following prayer:

O God our heavenly Father, Thou who are our refuge and strength and a present help in time of trouble, we bow to Thee this morning in humility and in profound sadness. We thank Thee, O Father, that Thou didst raise in our midst Thy servant, the Honorable Edward E. Beidleman. He was a perfect proof of Thy wisdom in the choice of men, a prominent attorney, a former member of this House and of the Senate, a Lieutenant-Governor, a kind friend and neighbor, and above all a good Samaritan in this city and Commonwealth. The angel of death has entered into this home so suddenly and has turned this home of joy into one of sorrow, but may we truly say this morning as Thy people, not my will O Lord but Thy will be done. We thank Thee for his noble example, for his exalted patriotism, for his official integrity and wise statesmanship. We thank Thee O Lord that he loved this Commonwealth and was willing to sacrifice and serve for the ennobling not only of this Commonwealth but for all classes and conditions of men. We thank Thee that he took an interest in the widows and orphans, rich and poor, high and low, educated and uneducated, and was a man among men. Now, dear God, in Thine all-wise-Providence, Thou hast seen fit to take the soul of this our dear brother out of this world into eternity so suddenly, may we all be aware that there is merely a step between us and death. And now we pray Thee that Thou wilt comfort and sustain the bereaved widow and daughter in their home. We pray Thee that they may look to Thee for strength, succor and comfort, and above all we pray that Thou wilt comfort the aged father and mother whose hearts are almost broken this morning. Especially do we pray for Thy comfort for them in their loss of a faithful and devoted son, and may they rely on Thee and on Thy mercy for the comfort of every good and perfect gift. So teach us to employ our days that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom, and may the ennobling example of this dear brother and friend be an incentive to the rising generation. May we never forget the memory of his wonderful work. O Lord hear us now as our hearts are sad. We pray that Thou wilt not forsake Thy children when they come to Thee in death. "O death where is thy sting, O grave where is thy victory?" The sting of death is folded up in victory; thanks be to God who giveth us victory through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. We ask all these things in the name of the crucified and risen Saviour and Redeemer, the Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

Whereas, The importation of Textiles from Asiatic and European Countries into the United States is creating havoc and demoralization among these industries in Pennsylvania, among the owners and the workers thereof, particularly at this time when the industry is in need of a greater domestic market at a fair price for its products, and

Whereas, The importation of Art leaded and Memorial windows for churches and other buildings of similar design is working a great injury to the glass manufacturing industry of the United States, and

ANNOUNCEMENT OF DEATH OF THE HONORABLE EDWARD E. BEIDLEMAN.

Mr. RICE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it becomes my solemn duty to announce to this House the death of a former member of this House, and a former Lieutenant-Governor of this Commonwealth, the Honorable Edward E. Beidleman, of Harrisburg. Mr. Beidleman died suddenly this morning at 5.30 o'clock. He was for many years one of the prominent citizens of this Commonwealth, widely known and loved by the people of this Commonwealth and of this city. I therefore ask the indulgence of this House to make the following motion.

Mr. Speaker, I move that a committee of five members of the House be appointed, including the Chief Clerk, to make suitable arrangements for attendance at the funeral of the Honorable Edward E. Beidleman, and that the Chief Clerk of this House be authorized to arrange for a floral tribute to be sent as an expression of the sympathy of this House.

Mr. REED. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I feel certain that the announcement of the sudden death of our former Lieutenant-Governor, Edward E. Beidleman, has come as a distinct shock to his numerous friends and admirers throughout the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and that into hundreds of homes throughout the county the announcement of his death has come with a shock and a sense of a personal bereavement. It is not my purpose at this time to speak upon the character and upon the services of the former Lieutenant-Governor, the Honorable Edward E. Beidleman. I shall, however, ask that opportunity when a resolution is presented in accordance with the motion which is now made. I simply arise to second the motion of my colleague from Dauphin, Mr. Rice, and I trust that this motion may be adopted by this House by a rising vote.

The motion was unanimously agreed to by a rising vote.

The SPEAKER. May the Chair suggest that the members of the House stand with bowed heads for a moment in silence in respect to the Honorable Edward E. Beidleman, late Lieutenant-Governor of the Commonwealth.

The House stood with bowed heads for a moment in memory to the late Honorable Edward E. Beidleman.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. EDWARD BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. EDWARD BROWN. Mr. Speaker, a meeting has been called of the Aeronautic Committee and I just wish to dwell upon that announcement for a moment as it is vitally important at this time that every member of that committee make known his wishes. We have made arrangements for a sort of field day to-morrow for the committee and a few invited guests to make a trip to the flying field at Middletown to view the planes, and have also made special arrangements for flights for those who desire. It is not compulsory for any member of that committee to fly but there will be the opportunity for those who desire to do so.

The announcement has been made that we would leave here at 2.00 o'clock. I wish to correct that because we have had to set the time at 1.00 o'clock to be at the flying field at 1.30, because they have hired planes to help on the flights and it is necessary for us to do our reviewing of the field and the plant and complete the flights before 3.30, and that cannot be done if we arrive there at 2.30. I ask every member of that committee to report at the time set so that all these arrangements can be completed and that we do not fall down on the job, because these planes have been ordered from Bolling Field and we want to be there in full force.

RECESS.

The SPEAKER. The Chair declares a recess until 4.00 o'clock this afternoon.

AFTER RECESS.

The House reconvened at 4.00 o'clock P. M.

The SPEAKER (Aaron B. Hess) in the Chair.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill is commonly known as the firearms bill, introduced in the Senate by Senator Salus, having been originated by the Crimes Commission which was appointed by the Governor of this Commonwealth. The Crimes Commission has met every reasonable request for amendment of this act, both from the point of view of the manufacturer of firearms, as well as from the point of view of the seller of firearms. The amendment offered now by my friend, Mr. Peters, was submitted to the chairman of the Crimes Commission, as well as to the general membership of that Commission, and after careful consideration it was determined that the amendment was not a reasonable one. I am told further that the source from which the amendment comes, namely, the man or men who are interested in trap shooting, also spoke with the chairman of the Crimes Commission and that none of them were able to present a more convincing reason for the introduction of this amendment. It seems to me, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, that the work of this Commission should be kept intact as nearly as may be possible, and for that reason I ask you that you vote down the amendment.
